

Second hand press for sale. Can be used for glulam beams and other building components. Complete production lines for glulam and fingerjoint production also available.

Jan-Reidar Skretteberg International sales & marketing professional with a passion for wood. Owner of Avance Development

This is a horizontal, hydraulic press, built in 2007. Pressing length is max. 28 meters. It is possible to press elements of different length at the same time. Max. pressing width (cooresponding to beam heigth) is 1.500 mm, and pressing heigth is min. 80 and max. 550 mm.

Complete production lines for glulam and fingerjoint production also available.

For more information, please contact me on jrs@avance.no